A symposium specifically designed for Superintendents, Deputy, Associate, Assistant Superintendents, Federal Program Administrators, and School Board Members

Participants will receive a COMPLIMENTARY ONE-DAY PASS to attend CABE 2024 AND The Administrative Leadership Symposium (ALS)

THIS YEAR'S TOPIC AND OUTCOMES

What ALL administrators need to know about ELA/Reading and Biliteracy for EL/MLL/EBL

- The State of ELA/Reading in America - Laws and policies that have and will change the course of reading assessment data analysis, curriculum development, and daily Reading and ELD instruction.
- The false narratives about ELA/Reading instruction in California - Struggling readers or inappropriate uses of core and intervention reading programs?
- Dual Responsibility - ELA/Reading and ELD policies and state and federal program alignment.
- The Due Process for adopting ELA/Reading curriculum programs - Absence of, misuses, and misunderstandings.
- The most current ELA/Reading and Biliteracy research
- How to differentiate reading instruction for all EL/MLL/EBL typologies.

What Does it Take to Lead a District through the 21st Century?

Our guest speakers will share:

- The mindsets, skills, and tools all administrators need to effectively lead and guide district stakeholders into, through, and beyond 21st century education innovations, mandates, and program implementation.
- How they are taking bold actions to implement the 4 Principles of the English Learner Roadmap.
- The daring moves leaders make to ensure they provide their culturally and linguistically diverse students with the facilities and resources needed to thrive as 21st Century Globally Competent Citizens.
- The most powerful Drivers they use and when to use them.
- How they use their moral compass and vision for the future to lead their districts through the quickening pace of demographic, technological, and societal changes.
- Guidance, recommendations, and suggestions for preparing all district stakeholders, students, and their families for the challenges and opportunities the next two decades will bring.

Throughout this symposium, participants will have the opportunity to engage with our invited guest speakers by asking questions, sharing ideas, and receiving guidance as they develop their tailored implementation plan.
